

Az-900-questions January 2023 - Session 01

Questions:

#	Name	Company	Question	Priority	Received
51	[REDACTED]		Is NSG a paid service?		10:35 am
50	[REDACTED]		If there is no availability zone in a region, what is the purpose of Azure region?		10:30 am

#	Name	Company	Question	Priority
			a region, what is the purpose of Azure region?
49	[REDACTED]		price calculation of pay as go is for min ?
48	[REDACTED]		Is there a cost for bandwidth used - network use?
47	[REDACTED]		Will you tell us more about availability zone ?
46	[REDACTED]		what about microsoft Excel -- SAAS

Answers:

- 46: Yes, it is a SAS service.
- 47: We covered Availability Zones in detail. If you have specific questions please let me know tomorrow. More details can be found here:
  - <https://learn.microsoft.com/en-us/azure/reliability/availability-zones-overview#availability-zones>
- 48: Yes. depending on the Azure service you use, you will pay for storage taken, processing power used and traffic. We will talk about this in session 02.
- 49: You can use Azure Pricing Calculator for specific resources:
  - <https://azure.microsoft.com/en-us/pricing/calculator/>

- 50: All Azure regions have at least one data center which acts as a single Availability Zone. However, you can't have redundancy.
- 51: No. It is free.
  - <https://azure.microsoft.com/en-ca/pricing/details/virtual-network>

Thank you!

Reza